A Publication of Emanuel Lutheran Church
Volume XXXVII No. 1
January 2012

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, Emanuel's mission is to witness to the good news of salvation through Christ to individuals, the community and the world through discipleship and service.

My Walk in Faith...

One of the first words I think of when I think about my faith is home. Home is defined as a place where one lives. He lives in me and He lives in all of us. God is, always has been, and will continue to be a loving presence in my life.

Being a Christian, being a Lutheran, being a pastor's daughter has been my life for as long as I can remember. I was born while Dad was in seminary. I was just a toddler when we moved to Minnesota for Dad's first call. While I don't remember a whole lot about living in Minnesota, I do remember our churches there. We moved to Arcanum when I was 7. Our churches and the people there were as much of a part of my growing up as my school or my friends. Even the building themselves were so familiar to me, an extension of my home.

I will admit that my church attendance during my college years at BGSU was spotty. But even so, there was nothing like attending a good ol' ELCA church service. Those familiar hymns, the familiar prayers felt like home. My husband Jason and I met during our years at BGSU (just like my parents did!) and he teases me about how my eyes lit up (so he says!) on our first date when he told me he was raised Lutheran. Not that it was the deciding factor in deciding he was "the one" necessarily, but it didn't hurt.

When Mom and Dad told us they were moving to northwest Ohio, I was thrilled! Jason and I were expecting Hannah in a couple of months and we were settled in Perrysburg, so I was very happy to have them move closer to us.

So now, Emanuel is our church home. One of the greatest parts of being a member of a church is being a part of a large, loving, extended family. And I am blessed to be part of this one.

Through it all, through changes and hard times and good ones, there has been one steady presence, a comforting knowledge that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is with me every step of the way. My faith can't be tied to an event, or to one turning point. It is who I am. It is home to me.

*Thank you! Danke schoen! Merci beaucoup! Muchos gracias!
Domo arigato! Asante sana! And thank you again!*

Just how can I say it so that you know how much we feel it?!?! Somehow, those two words – “thank you!” – just don’t seem adequate at expressing our gratitude for all of your many kindnesses, cards, gifts, goodies, and well-wishes for us, not only at Christmas, but throughout the year. Most especially, we appreciate the ministry we share here at Emanuel with you, our Church Family. You are all blessed to be a blessing to others, and we are blessed to be a part of the Emanuel Church Family! Thank you, each and all, and consider yourself hugged! May God bless you as His love shines through you in the New Year ahead!

Love & joy come to you,
Pastor & Carol

I'd like to give a massive thank you to all of you who have served this community in the last year by reading, running sound, ushering, filling in, cleaning, planting, tending, raking, and almost never saying no when I begged you for something! You make this a Community of Christ, and our ministry would fail without your generosity! Thank you!

Adult Choir

Thank you to Tom and Beth Jenny for hosting our choir Christmas party! We had such a great time!

Thank you to the choir for all of your hard work in preparing music for Christmas. You made the worship services extra special.

Practices will continue from 7:00-8:00 p.m. in the sanctuary each Wednesday of January. We are starting a new round of music, so if you have been thinking of joining us, now is a great time!

For the first time since I have been here, the choir will be presenting a Good Friday cantata entitled "Tapestry of Darkness." This will be the focus of rehearsals for the next few months.

The choir will sing next on January 8 at the 10:30 service. During the offering, "Fit for a King" will be the anthem, and it is all about the gifts we bring to Jesus. "Born to Be the Bread," a communion anthem, is a new post-Christmas number by a favorite composer, Ruth Elaine Schram. This song carries the message that it was God's plan for Jesus to be the bread of life for our souls.

After School Club

Thanks to the children for their awesome music during the Christmas season. You are all a blessing to our congregation and you continue to amaze us with your talent and willingness to be part of worship.

After a two-week break, After School Club will resume on Wednesday, January 4. We will be working on all new music and hope to share our singing and bells at the nursing homes this month.

Junior High Youth

A thank you to the junior high youth for preparing songs for Christmas. You did such a fine job, and you learn so quickly. I appreciate your patience as we continue to work out a practice schedule (short but sweet!). The young people are excited to sing one of their favorites, "Siyahamba," for the congregation this month. This song is from South Africa, and the words mean "We are marching in the light of God." It is a definite toe-tapper.

Emanubells

Did you know that Emanubells had their first gig in December? Everyone had a fun time ringing at the church in Wauseon, and Emanubells is now officially established as the "junior varsity" bell choir!

Practices will resume on Wednesday, January 4 at 6:00 p.m. in the sanctuary and will last 30 minutes.

Thank You, Emanuel

I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the people of Emanuel for another wonderful year as your worship and music coordinator. It is my honor and my privilege to work with all of our musicians, young and old. Your kind words throughout the year and your dedication to our music program is so appreciated by me. I cannot wait for another year of worship and music in 2012!

Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms. 1 Peter 4:10
